Memorial bench

A bench has been erected on the corner of Ripley Road and Rockingham Road in memory of Gordon and Judy Evans. Gordon and Judy lived in Bancroft Road, Cottingham, for nearly 20 years and are fondly remembered by their friends and family.

Methodist Services

Sunday services at the Methodist Church will start at 3.30pm during the winter, and until further notice.

What a Ball!

The ball held at the Hunting Lodge on 23 October was a huge success raising a fantastic £5,500 for breast and prostate cancer charities. Thanks go to the 79 people who attended and to everyone who contributed to the auction of promises and helped out with the event.

£3k for 3 Peaks

David Love would like to thank the 'Ramblers' and everyone who sponsored him for his recent 3 Peaks Challenge which raised more than £3,000 for Kettering General Hospital A&E department.

Cat found

Does anyone own a large grey tom cat that has been around Hill House, Middleton, for several months? If you know who he may belong to, please contact Kay Dickens on 771067.

Merry Christmas and a happy new year everybody, and thanks to everyone who has contributed to and helped to distribute the newsletter this year.

Ramblers come of age!

By Andy Gilgrist

They've quaffed more than 200 barrels of beer, munched their way through more than 100 curries, Chinese banquets and fine English fare, plus the odd chilli. And they have heard, told and even laughed at some of the worst jokes known to man.

It must be a winning recipe, because the Ramblers – Cottingham and Middleton's monthly gathering of men and real ale – has chalked up its first 10 years. The passing of the decade was marked with a party and a beer brewed specially for the occasion.

Fittingly, the 10th anniversary gathering was at the home of Charles Freestone (pictured above). Ramblers congregate at a different member's house each fourth Wednesday of the month and Charles was one of the founding 'disciples' of Ramblers – 12 men of usually sound judgment. Six of the original dozen Ramblers were at the 10th anniversary party, including Simon Medwell who founded the phenomenon.

A barrel-shaped cake was fittingly decorated and two beers by the Langton Brewery were sampled. The main beer, in two barrels, called God's Gift and a three-word name which included the words 'Old' and 'Rambling', went down well and has also been bottled and distributed around the villages. Don't be surprised to see them crop up as Christmas presents from your Rambling neighbours!

Ramblers has remained remarkably strong as a group, despite regulars moving away over the years. Its continued success is testament to the hard work put in by key members and to the positive role it plays in welcoming men who move to the villages.

If you want to quickly feel part of village life, any man (new or old) is invited to come along to Ramblers and sample both the beer and the good company. The ladies also have their own monthly get-together called 'Sweets'.

If you fancy attending Ramblers, email Kevin Tyler at kytyer@hotmail.com or call him on 770670. The first Ramblers of the New Year is on 27 January.

Farewell Luke!

Luke Whitney, Head Teacher at Cottingham School for more than seven years, is leaving at the end of the year to take up an appointment as Executive Head Teacher of two primary schools in Lincolnshire. Luke has made an outstanding contribution to our village school and a glowing OFSTED report in 2008 showed just how much he and his team of staff have achieved. Luke will be greatly missed, but he leaves behind a happy and vibrant school in the capable hands of Erica Biddle (Deputy Head Teacher), who will become Acting Head Teacher from January. Pupils, parents, governors and staff all wish Luke the very best of luck in his new role.

Crime Report

Four crimes have been reported in the villages over the last few months (8 Sep to 28 Nov) - separate thefts from an outside driveway, lean-to, garden and barn.

New Cottingham FC

New Cottingham FC are finding their feet (well, boots!) with a few wins under their belts. They recently won three games to progress to the last 16 in the Northants FA trophy but were unfortunately knocked out last week in a 2-1 defeat to Corby Forest.
